THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY OF THE ORDINARY TIME

Today's Scripture readings remind us of one of the greatest truths in the Bible, namely, that there are really only two commandments. The first is to love God, and the second is to love our neighbor.

"The greatest among you will be your servant." Have you ever considered a life of service as a priest, deacon, brother or sister? If God is calling you, contact Fr. Chris Lemieux at 416-968-0997 or email vocations@archtoronto.org

November 1st

ALL SAINTS

This feast allows us to honour all Saints, known and unknown. It encourages us to reflect on the faithfulness of men and women throughout the ages, who by leading holy lives and performing good deeds help to inspire us to follow the teaching of Jesus, as they did.

Lord, You allow us to honour all Your Saints in one common festival. Through the prayers of so many intercessors grant us an abundance of Your merciful favours which we so greatly desire. Amen.

God is the glory and joy of all His Saints

November 2nd

ALL SOULS

On this day we commemorate all the Faithful Departed. The reason for this commemoration is the doctrine and belief that all who die in venial sin, or have not fully atoned for other transgressions are detained in purgatory to be cleansed of all impurities.

Lord Jesus, Have mercy on all who have died. Bring them into the fullness of Your joy and let them live with You in heaven. Lord Jesus, hear our prayer, for You are the Saviour and our Lord for ever and ever. Amen.

November 3rd

SAINT MARTIN DE PORRES

Patron of social justice and of people of mixed race.

Martin de Porres was born at Lima, Peru in 1579. His father was a Spanish knight and his mother an Indian woman from Panama. As half-casts he and his sister did not enjoy full privileges. At 15 Martin became a lay-brother at the Dominican Friary.

God, You led St. Martin by the way of humility to heavenly glory. Help us to follow the example of his holiness and so become worthy to be exalted with him in heaven. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, call many members of our community to be generous workers for your people and to gather in your harvest. Send them to share the Good News of Jesus with all the people of the earth. Father, we ask this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen

November 4th
SAINT CHARLES BORROMEO
 Patron of catechists and catechumens and of Seminarians

St. Charles Borromeo was born in 1538 at Arona. If ever the gates of hell could have prevailed it was at this time. It was the time of the Catholic Reformation. Charles was born into a aristocratic family. His father, Count Gilbert Borromeo, possessed great piety and rare diplomatic abilities. It was from him Charles learned his love of prayer and tender care for the poor. His mother was Margaret de Medici, sister of Cardinal de Medici, who became Pope Pius IV. Charles, encouraged by his father to wear the cassock, was sent to Milan to pursue his studies. There one of his masters remarket, that Charles will be the great reformer and will do wonderful things. At the age of 22 his uncle Pope Pius IV created him Cardinal-Archbishop of Milan Pope and shortly afterwards nominated him Archbishop of Milan and Papal Secretary of State. He dedicated his life with great personal sacrifice. Imposing much needed severe discipline on both clergy and laity provoked opposition. For merely honorary positions he had no ambition. In the great plague at Milan in 1575 he showed himself the true shepherd by his self-sacrificing charity. Charles died in 1584 and was canonized in 1610. His motto was: Be sure you first preach by the way you live.

Father, keep in Your people the spirit which filled Charles Borromeo. Let your Church be continually renewed and show the unity of Christ to the world by being conformed to his likeness. Amen.

Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament

O God, in this wonderful sacrament You left us a memorial of Your passion. Grant us so to venerate the sacred mysteries of Your body and blood that we may ever continue to feel within us the blessed fruit of Your redemption Who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen.

Remember This weekend

We are asking you to, even so you might not be able to attend Holy Mass yet, to support your parish, especially our Building Fund and our new Loan Repayment Fund. to show we are willing to make sacrifices to pay off our huge loans and may be then we will get permission from the chancery office to build a rectory.

Thank you for your generous donations, which, especially now, at this difficult time, are very much appreciated. We know we can count on you to support your parish and thank you for your generous and continuous support.

MAY GOD KEEP YOU SAFE AND BLESS YOU AND OUR PARISH

Today we start the month of November, the month when we commemorate all poor souls, lingering in purgatory, the souls of our deceased family members, relatives, friends and all those souls lingering in purgatory.

Let us pray:

O gentle Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on them.

Be not severe in Your judgments, but let some drops of Your Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames. And, Merciful Savior, send Your angels to conduct them to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen.
