FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

St. John, the Evangelist, says that when the light of Christ came into the world some people rejected it. Why?, because their deeds were evil. Light stands for truth and goodness. Alas, we ourselves do not always welcome the light.

St. Paul reminds us that we are "created in Christ Jesus for good works". If you think God's plan for you could be to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997 or email

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, call many members of our community to be generous workers for your people and to gather in your harvest. Send them to share the Good News of Jesus with all the people of the earth. Father, we ask this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen!

ST. PATRICK
Patron of Ireland

St. Patrick was born about the year 389 the date and place are uncertain. There are two surviving works written by him. "Confessions" written near the end of his life and the "Letter to the Soldiers of Coroticus", a letter of protest to a British warlord for seizing Irish converts. He was the son of Calpurnius, who was a deacon. His grandfather was a priest. He most probably grew up in northwestern Britain. At 16 he was captured by a plundering band from Northern Ireland and together with some of his father's slaves brought to Ireland, where he had to serve a heathen master as a herdsman. After 6 years he escaped and returned home. In a dream he was told to go back to Ireland to Christianize her people. After 5 years studying he was ordained. In 431 he returned to Ireland and traveled the length and breadth of the island evangelizing. It was not an easy task because of the hostility of the Druids; still he succeeded in converting several members of the royal family. In 432 he was ordained Bishop and was commissioned by Pope Leo the Great to organize the Church of Ireland in 442. He ordained Bishops in various places, he founded monasteries for men and convents for women. Eventually Irish monks carried the Faith to England, France and Switzerland. After living a completely apostolic life of labour and prayer, St Patrick died March 17th, 461.

God, You sent Patrick to preach Your glory to the Irish people. Through his merits and intercession grant that we who have the honour of bearing the name of Christian may constantly proclaim Your wonderful designs to men. Amen.

SAINT JOSEPH

Patron of the Universal Church and Patron of Canada.

St. Joseph, the pure spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the foster father of our Lord Jesus Christ, was a descendant of King David. He was a carpenter in the village of Nazareth. Joseph, as a "just man", would have abided by the law of that time and most probably was engaged to Mary when he was between the ages of 13 and 19. When Joseph heard, that Mary was with child, he wanted to dismiss her quietly as not to disgrace her, but changed his mind, after an angel told him in a dream to take Mary as his wife and to be a foster father to the Son of God. In his purity of heart, his chastity, patience, fortitude, gentleness and manliness of character he is a true model for all mankind.

Almighty God, You entrusted to the faithful care of Saint Joseph the beginnings of the mysteries of man's salvation. Through his intercession may Your Church always be faithful in her service so that Your designs will be fulfilled. Amen.

Be merciful, o Lord, for we have sinned.

Prayer for Lent

Merciful God, in the darkness of our sin and the confusion of our world, we seek to renew our faith in You this Lent. In the face of death and suffering, we long to hope in Your promise of everlasting life. In times of loneliness and alienation, we desire the consolation of Your undying love. Touch our hearts this Lent that through the mystery of Christ's suffering, death and resurrection, we may come to live faithfully in Your Kingdom, both now and forever. Amen.
