EASTER SUNDAY

Easter Day is the greatest day in the Church's calendar. Jesus has overcome death, not only for himself, but for all of us. The joy of Easter fills all the earth, the joy that death has been conquered. Let us open our hearts to receive this great joy.

The glorious Feast of the Resurrection of Christ proclaims, forever, that life is greater than death. Jesus commanded us to preach this good news to all peoples in all places at all times. If you feel God is calling you to minister in His Church as a priest, religious or deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997. email

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, call many members of our community to be generous workers for your people and to gather in your harvest. Send them to share the Good News of Jesus with all the people of the earth. Father, we ask this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen!

Father Jan

would like to wish to all parishioners, their families and friends

A VERY BLESSED EASTER.

THE RESURRECTION

Our faith, and recognition of the great Gift of Christ in our lives, is proven by His resurrection from the realm of the dead. Christ rose again and came to us as He had come to us at His birth. Christ opened up to us the kingdom of God by His death, and by His resurrection He gave us the assured faith that we may return to God. (1 Cor. 15:1 ff)

We have assurance because of the resurrection of Christ that we also will arise. We can think upon this with joy. We can anticipate this with confidence, as we pray and strive to fulfill the will of God. We should live with great confidence for our courage is based on Christ. St. Luke tells us: "Do not live in fear, little flock. It has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom." (Lk.12:32)

By Christ's coming to earth, by His sacrifice of Himself, we are renewed in the joy of some day possessing the eternal kingdom of life and love that God promised us from the beginning. May we always in our daily living praise and give glory to Go through our generous cooperation with His gift of Himself and His graces.

HE IS RISEN - HE IS WITH US

THE SITE OF THE RESURRECTION

Pilgrims enjoy praying at Golgotha in the Basilica of the Holy Sepulchre, the very place where Jesus died and was buried. There they meditate quite often on the sufferings of our Lord. Do they remember that this is the exact site where Jesus resurrected and is the origin of our joy? What we call Holy Sepulchre, Orientals call Anastasis or Resurrection. Are we not more attracted to Jesus' suffering than to the joy of his glorious Resurrection? His body was laid down in the tomb and it is from there that He rose from the dead, on Easter morning, to make true His promise: "Your sorrow will turn into joy."

Today pilgrims like to linger under the rotunda of the Anastasis and meditate upon the page of the Beatitudes that summarizes the Gospel: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven". To be truly blessed amid the petty annoyances coming from all directions, amid the suffering, fears and tears, one must have met the LIVING JESUS! He alone can transform our miseries into cheerfulness and our burdens into blessings and hope through His Blessed Resurrection.

The Apostles left Jerusalem announcing the news to the extremities of the earth. "Those who heard the Apostles were moved to the core of their hearts". It allowed us to become Christians. Our Christian faith demonstrates enthusiasm and exaltation. The Gospel is the Good News that warms the heart.

Easter Sunday will be a day when the grace of Resurrection will transform our bitterness into joy.

PRAYER FOR EASTER

GOD OF ALL MERCY, you raised Jesus from the dead and put an end to our slavery to sin. This mystery of our redemption is more than we could ever hope to understand. May this Easter season give us greater insight into your ways, a new outpouring of your love in our hearts, and renewed compassion for our brothers and sisters around us. May we become evermore aware that the resurrected Christ is with us always, even to the end of the world. Amen.

Parish News

GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST! We are now able to attend the celebration of daily morning Mass. Sadly weekend Masses are still restricted. For weekend Masses you will have to register, but only 15% of the capacity of the church are allowed to attend the celebration of the Holy Eucharist. All others will have to continue to watch Fr. Jan celebrate weekend Masses via

Please pray for all who were called by our Lord Jesus Christ, followed His call and were baptized during the Easter Vigil here at Guardian Angels Parish and in churches all over the world.

We beg You, Lord, to send the Holy Spirit upon these new Catholics so that, inspired and encouraged, they may grow daily in Christian perfection. Bless them and help them to know You better each day. Amen.

THE HOLY SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

Will be celebrated on Saturday April 10th at the 5:00 p.m. weekend Mass for candidates who prepared themselves attending Guardian Angels Parish's Catechism class..

Please pray for all young candidates that God may bless them with the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Lord Jesus, send Your Spirit into their and our hearts, so that we may die to sin and live with You for the Father's glory, now and forever. Amen.

Christ our Lord was put to death for our sins; and rose again to make us worthy of life. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Have a Blessed Easter

GUARDIAN ANGELS PARISH NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT – SPIRITUALLY AND FINANCIALLY

Sadly the church doors are only partially open, (15% of the church's capacity) This is fine for weekday Masses, but it means that at this time only a few parishioners, after registering, can come to church and celebrate Holy Sunday Mass with Fr. Jan.

All others can only watch our Pastor Fr. Jan celebrating the Holy Eucharist in our beautiful church via live-stream.

You might not be able to come to church and still the parish needs you and your support. There are different ways to support Guardian Angels Parish

- You could send your cheque made out to Guardian Angels Parish by mail.
- You could make an appointment and bring your donation to the office.
- You could use the convenient PAG. Application forms are available on our website or you may pick one up, by appointment at the office. You may even request to have one sent to you by mail..
- And... you can use the "give now" on our website.and pay by credit Card.
