CORPUS CHRISTI - THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

We are the People of God journeying in faith towards the Promised Land of eternal life. We need food for our journey. We receive this food in the Eucharist. Here we are fed with food far more precious than the manna, which sustained the Israelites in the desert. Christ nourishes us with the word of God and the bread of eternal life.

Receiving Eucharist is a real sign of unity in our Church. God nourishes us with the "Bread from Heaven" if we have ordained priests to celebrate the Liturgy. If you feel the inclination to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997, or email: vocations@vocations.ca. website www.vocationstoronto.ca

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come, follow Me. Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to Your voice. Support our bishops, priests and consecrated people in their apostolic labour. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to Your service. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "Yes" to the Lord Who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

THE SOLEMNITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI

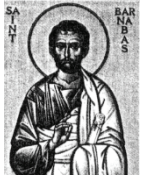

Lord Jesus Christ, You gave us the Eucharist as the memorial of Your suffering and death. May our worship of this sacrament of Your Body and Blood help us to experience the salvation You won for us and the peace of Your Kingdom. Amen.

CHRIST IS THE LIVING BREAD THAT CAME DOWN FROM HEAVEN

SAINT BARNABAS Apostle

Though not one of the Twelve, St. Barnabas is considered an Apostle by the church. He was a Jew of the tribe of Levi, from Cyprus. He came to Jerusalem where he joined the early Christian community. His success in preaching prompted the Apostles to change his name of Joseph to Barnabas, which means "son of encouragement. It was Barnabas who accepted the recently converted and former persecutor of the church, Saul, and set him, on the path to becoming the great Apostle Paul by introducing him to the Apostles. Barnabas was at Paul's side for many years preaching the Faith to Gentiles. Tradition has it that he was stoned to death in his native Cyprus.

God, You commanded that St. Barnabas, who was full of Faith and the Holy Spirit, should be set apart to labour for the conversion of the Gentiles. May Christ's Gospel, which he preached with great ardor, continue to be preached faithfully by word and deed. Amen.

June 11th

THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

The month of June is dedicated by the Church to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, Who is love incarnate. We are encouraged to adore the Heart of Jesus as a symbol of His threefold love: His human love for us, His spiritual love for us and His divine love for us. Let the image of the Sacred Heart become a sign of the love of Jesus rules over all of us.

Father, we rejoice in the gifts of love we have received from the Heart of Jesus Your Son. Open our hearts to share His life and continue to bless us with His Love. Amen.

June 12th

IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

The devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary is closely linked with that to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Mary's sanctity and her love as the Mother of God are signified by her immaculate heart, burning with love for God and us.

Father, You prepared the heart of the Virgin Mary to be a fitting home for Your Holy Spirit. By Her prayers may we become a more worthy temple of Your glory. Amen.

JUNE: A FEAST OF FEASTS

The month of June brings us significant liturgical solemnities. We celebrate the Sacred Heart of Jesus, an event that felicitously unites this popular devotion with theological depth. It was traditional, and some countries, still is, to consecrate families to the Sacred Heart, whose image they would keep in their homes. The devotion is rooted in the mystery of the Incarnation; it is precisely through the Heart of Jesus that the Love of God for humanity is sublimely manifested.

This is why authentic devotion to the Sacred Heart has retained all its effectiveness and especially attracts souls thirsting for God's mercy who find in it the inexhaustible source from which to draw the water of Life that can irrigate the deserts of the soul arid make hope flourish anew. The Solemnity of the Sacred Heart is also the World Day of Prayer for the Sanctification of Priests:

I take the opportunity to invite all of you, dear brothers and sisters to pray for priests always so that they will be effective witnesses of Christ's love.

We also celebrate the Birth of St John the Baptist, the only Saint whose birth is commemorated because it marked the beginning of the fulfillment of the divine promises: John is that 'prophet,' identified with Elijah, who was destined to be the immediate precursor of the Messiah, to prepare the people of Israel for his coming. His feast reminds us that our life is entirely and always 'relative' to Christ and is fulfilled by accepting Him, the Word, the Light and the Bridegroom. "He must increase, but I must decrease" (John 3.30): the Baptist's words are a program for every Christian.

Allowing the "I" of Christ to replace our "I" was in an exemplary way the desire of the Apostles Peter and Paul, whom the Church solemnly venerates on June 29. Saint Paul wrote of himself: "It is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me" (Galatians 2.20).

Before them and before any other saint, it was Mary Most Holy who lived this reality and cherished in her heart the words of her Son Jesus. We contemplate her Immaculate Heart, the heart of a mother that continues to watch tenderly over us all. May her intercession enable us to remain ever faithful to our Christian vocation.

Benedict XVI
June, 2006

At the name of Jesus every knee should bend.

Please pray for all the sick and all those who care for them.

Jesus our Lord, we ask You to have mercy on all who are sick. Give them strength and love, and help them to carry this cross with faith. May their suffering overcome the power of evil and lead others to our Father in heaven.

Lord Jesus, hear our prayer, for You are Lord for ever and ever. Amen.

Lord God, let us recognize You in the faces of those around us.
