TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said, "People will come from north and south, from east and west, and take their places in the Kingdom." We have come here from many different directions. But all of these directions have served to bring us to this house of God. We give thanks to God for that and ask that we may be found worthy of God's kingdom.

Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour". Perhaps the way Christ has called you to magnify the Lord is through the priesthood or religious life. If you think this might be the case, call Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997 or email vocations@vocations.ca www.vocationstoronto.ca

WE NEED MORE PRIESTS AND RELIGIOUS. PLEASE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

August 23rd

SAINT ROSE OF LIMA Patroness of South America

Isabel de Flores y del Olivia, called Rose by her mother because of her red cheeks, was born in Lima Peru in the year of 1586 of Spanish parentage. She worked long and hard to help support her family, growing flowers and doing embroidery and other needlework. Having taken a vow of virginity early in life, she refused to marry and became a Dominican Tertiary at the age of twenty. She occupied a summerhouse in the garden of her parents, where she lived a life of prayer and penance. St. Rose cared for the sick and suffering among the poor, Indians and slaves. She is regarded the originator of social service in Peru. She died 1617 and was canonized 1671 and so became the first Saint of the New World.

God, You filled St. Rose with great love for You. Through her intercession, help us to follow her example on earth, by humbly serving all Your beloved children, that we might enjoy all Your delights in heaven. Amen.

August 24th

SAINT BARTHOLOMEW Apostle

In the Gospels of Mark and Luke, Saint Bartholomew is one of the twelve Apostles, found by Philip and chosen by Jesus himself. In John's Gospel Bartholomew, which means "son of Tolmai" is not mentioned, but does list a Nathanael in his account of the gathering of Apostles. It is reasonably, but not conclusively, that the two names designate the same person. Legend tells us, that St. Bartholomew was preaching in India, Armenia, Mesopotamia and Persia. This Saint surly suffered Martyrdom, but of what kind is not known for sure, some say he was flayed alive and beheaded, in other accounts he suffered crucifixion. His relics are preserved in the church of St. Bartholomew on the island in the river Tiber near Rome.

Lord, strengthen in us that faith by which Your Apostle St. Bartholomew adhered to Your Son with sincerity of mind. Through his intercession, grant that Your Church may become a sacrament of salvation for all nations. Amen.

August 27th

ST. MONICA Patroness of mothers

What we know about St. Monica comes from St. Augustine's Confessions. Monica was born in North Africa about the year 332. Even so her parents were Christians she was given in marriage to Patricius, a pagan citizen of Tagaste. Patricius was a man with a good heart but had a violent temper and bad habits. Monica bore all trials with great patience. Her example had such great influence over her husband that he and his mother converted to Christianity. Patricius died a year after his baptism. The great cross of her life was the conduct her son Augustine, who was 17 years old when his father died. St. Monica constantly prayed for his conversion and in August 386 she saw her son return to God. At Easter 387 he was baptized by St. Ambrose. Monica's work was done; her son was converted; the sinner became a saint. St. Monica enjoyed a close relationship with her son from then on. She died in 387.

God, comforter of the afflicted, You accepted St. Monica's tears to bring about the conversion of her son St. Augustine. Through their intercession, grant that we may have contrition for our sins and experience the grace of your pardon. Amen.

August 28th

ST. AUGUSTINE
Patron of Theologians

St. Augustine was born November 13, 354. In spite of the piety of his mother, St. Monica, he fell at an early into the greatest disorders. He had a mistress and they had a son. According to Roman law they could not marry because they belonged to different social classes. After his baptism (see St. Monica) and after the death of his mother St. Monica and the death of his son, who died in 389, he established a religious community. In the year 391, people of Hippo, insisted that Augustine be ordained. As priest he preached with enormous success. 396 he became Bishop of Hippo. He was kind and charitable. He became a strong defender of the Faith. In his humility he wrote his Confessions about the year 397, and from this work we have a detailed account of his early years. This multi-faceted religious genius and devout servant of God died August 28th, 430.

Lord, renew in Your Church the spirit which You inspired in Augustine, Your Bishop. Filled by this spirit, may we thirst after You as the true Source of wisdom. Amen.
