THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus told a story about a Pharisee and a tax-collector who went into the Temple to pray. The Pharisee boasted that he was not like other people. By this he meant that he was not a sinner. Well, at the start of the Mass we confess that we are sinners and have the need to confess our sins to the Lord, asking him to turn his face from our sins, but not from us.

The blind beggar Bartimaeus would not listen to the many people scolding him to be quiet, but shouted all the louder in prayer "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Only then did Jesus call him over and answered his need. Bartimaeus becomes a powerful example of how persistent we must be in prayer when we are asking God to show us His Will for our lives. And then, ask Him for the grace to accept it. If you feel God is offering you the grace of a Church vocation, call Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997 email vocations@archtoronto.org www.vocationstoronto.ca

PLEASE PRAY FOR RELIGIOUS VOCATIONS

October 24th,

ST. ANTONY MARY CLARET

Helper of those suffering from cancer, heart trouble, and other serious ailments of soul and body

St. Antony was born in Catalonia, Spain in 1807 and became a weaver like his father. In his spare time he studied Latin and printing. In 1829 he entered the seminary at Vic and was ordained into the diocesan clergy in 1835, but longed to belong to a religious Order. In 1849 he founded the Congregation of Missionary Sons of the Immaculate heart of Mary or Claretians. In 1850 St. Antony was appointed Archbishop of Santiago in Cuba. He added the name Mary at his consecration taking her as "my Mother, my Protector, my teacher." He brought reform to clergy and laity in his diocese. He established many new parishes and restored the seminary. In 1857 he returned to Spain and became confessor to Queen Isabella and oversaw the activities of his congregation. In the revolution of 1868 Queen Isabella was forced off the throne and Antony went with her into exile. He sought refuge at a Cistercian Monastery in France where he died October 24, 1870 and was beatified 1934 and canonized in 1950. His teaching: "Choose now what you would wish to have chosen at life's end."

God, You strengthened St. Anthony Mary with wondrous love and patience in evangelizing the people. Through his intercession enable us to seek those things which are Yours and to labour in Christ for our fellowmen. Amen

October 28th

SAINTS SIMON AND JUDE

Apostles

ST. SIMON is surnamed the Cananean and also the Zeaot, referring to his zeal for the Law and to distinguish him from Simon Peter. He was the brother of St. James the Less. It is supposed that he suffered martyrdom in Persia.

ST. JUDE, known as Thaddaeus, was a relative of our Lord and Saviour. Ancient writers tell us, that he preached the Gospel in Judea, Samaria, Idumaea, Syria, Mesopotamia and Lybia. St. Jude is said to have suffered Martyrdom in Armenia, which at that time was subject to Persia. The nation Armenia did not convert to Christianity till the 3rd Century. St. Jude is well known as the Patron of desperate and hopeless cases.

Father, You revealed Yourself to us through the preaching of Your Apostles Simon and Jude. By their prayers, give Your Church continued growth, and increase the number of those who believe in You. Amen.
