FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“Love one another as I have loved you.” Of all the commandments Christ gave us this is the most important. It includes all the others. The only failure in the life of a Christian is the failure to love. Let us think about the people whom we find difficult to take into our hearts, and ask he Lord to help us to be more loving towards them. It is God who sets the example for us to follow.

The new commandment of love is required of everyone who follows the risen Lord. How do you fulfill the commandment? If God is calling you, to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy 416-968-0997 email

Prayer for the Perseverance of Vocations

O God, You have constituted Your only-begotten Son supreme and eternal Priest for the glory of Your majesty and the salvation of mankind; grant that those whom He has chosen ministers and dispensers of His mysteries may be found faithful in fulfilling the ministry that have received. Amen.

ST. DYPHNA

Patroness pf those suffering of nervous and mental afflictions

St. Dymphna was born in the 7th Century in Ireland/. Her father Damon, a pagan chieftain of great power and wealth. Her mother a devout Christin died when Dymphna was only 14 years old. Damon was mentally ill brought on by grief. He was looking for a wife of noble birth and resembling Dymphna’s mother. When none was found he was advised by evil advisers to marry his own daughter. St. Dymphna fled with St. Gerebran, her confessor and two trusted servants, and the king’s fool. Though it is uncertain what exactly happened next, the best-known version claims the group settled in Geel, where Dymphna built a hospital for the poor and sick, but in using her wealth, her father was able to discover their location.. He ordered the priest’s head to be cut off. He tried to persuade his daughter to return to Ireland and marry him. When she refused he drew his sword and cut her head off. She was only 15years old. Dymphna received the crown of martyrdom around the year 620 as she defended of purity, Hear us, O God, our Savior, as we honor St. Dymphna, patron of those afflicted with mental and emotional illness. Help us to be inspired by her example and comforted by her merciful help.

Amen.

May 22nd

SAINT RITA OF CASCIA

Widow, Patroness of Impossible Cases.

St. Rita was born at Spoleto, Italy in 1381. From an early age, Rita begged her parent to allow her to enter a convent, but her parents betrothed her to a cruel man with a violent temper, whom she married at the age of 18. Rita became a good wife and mother of twin sons. She was often mistreated by her husband, who taught their children his own evil ways. Rita prayed for her family. After almost 20 years of marriage, her husband was stabbed and died, but not before he repented. Rita’s prayers were heard. Her twin sons were determined to avenge their father’s death an again Rite appealed to heaven to prevent such a crime. Her prayers were answered and her two sons died before committing a crime, reconciled to God. After the death of her sons, she was alone in this world, she filled her days with good works, prayer, fasting and penance till she, after being initially refused, was finally admitted to the Augustinian convent at Cascia, Umbria, where she lived for 40 years a life of perfect obedience and great charity. Having great devotion to the Passion of Christ, she asked to be allowed to suffer like Jesus. She was struck by one of the thorns from the crucifix on the forehead. This wound would not heal and did cause her much suffering till she died on May 22nd, 1457. After many miracles were attributed to her intercessions, she was canonized May 24th 1900.

God, through the prayers of St. Rita, may we learn to bear our crosses in life in the same spirit in which she bore hers. Amen.

THE GOOD SHEPHERD IS RISEN! HE WHO LAID DOWN HIS LIFE FOR HIS SHEEP, WHO DIED FOR HIS FLOCK, HE IS RISEN, ALLELUIA.

PRAYER TO MARY MOTHER OF OUR SAVIOR

O Mary, Mother of my Savior, also accept me as your child; protect me in my weakness with the mantle of your motherly love. Recommend me to your Son and place me under His care. O treasurer of the Heart of Jesus, our Lady of the Sacred Heart, draw from the depths of this Heart the treasures of its graces and enrich my heart with them. Through your intercession with Jesus, Your Son, obtain for me the special grace to live with perfect purity of heart, so that it may be the pledge of my eternal salvation. Amen.

THE TEACHING OF CHRIST

We salute Christ among us. He is the Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity, true God and true man. Christ came to guarantee our salvation. He came to save us by His suffering and death. But more important, He came to teach us to live so as to gain the promised reward for which God the Father created us. Christ teaches us by miracles, by demonstrating His love and concern for us, by assuring us of salvation if we follow Him and obey God, our loving Father. His Apostle, John, tells us that Jesus said: "I am the light of the world, no follower of mine shall ever walk in darkness, no, he shall possess the light of life." And Christ also tells us that He and God the Father are the one true God: "The Father and I are one." It is Jesus who speaks in the name of the Father telling us how to come to the Father through our service and love of God and neighbor. And again and again Christ proves that He is the Light leading us to God. Jesus declared: "I have come to the world as its light, to keep everyone who believes in me from remaining in the dark." Knowing that Christ is ever before us, lighting our way and leading us, we can each hope to return to God the Creator of us all and find the bounty and blessedness of eternal glory with Him in heaven.

Do not fear what may happen to-morrow.

The same loving Father who cares for you today will care for you to-morrow.

Either He will shield you from suffering or He will give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace, then, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginings.
