PENTECOST SUNDAY

Today we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit on the apostles. It is a mistake to see this coming as something that happened long ago and can never happen again. Through the prayer of the Church, the Holy Spirit comes to us today. Let us dispose ourselves to receive the Spirit.

"Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love." Send forth workers into your vineyard. May some of our parishioners choose to serve you by becoming priests, deacons, brothers and sisters. If God is calling you, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org or www.vocationstoronto.ca

Prayer for the Perseverance of Vocations

O God, You have constituted Your only-begotten Son supreme and eternal Priest for the glory of Your majesty and the salvation of mankind; grant that those whom He has chosen ministers and dispensers of His mysteries may be found faithful in fulfilling the ministry that have received. Amen.

BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH

In Roman Catholic Mariology, Mother of the Church (Mater Ecclesiae) This title was first used in the 4th century by Saint Ambrose of Milan. It was also used by Pope Benedict XIV in 1748https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mother_of_the_Church - cite_note-2 and then by Pope Leo XIII in 1885.The title Mother of the Church was later officially given to Mary by Pope Paul VI. Pope John Paul II placed it in the Catechism of the Catholic Church and Pope Francis added a feast by this title into the Roman Calendar in 2018. This Memorial is celebrated on Monday after Pentecost Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, pray on our behalf and with us to the Lord of life and love, who rules the winds and storms, to calm the tempests in our minds and hearts and grant us consolation, security and peace in our day. Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

SAINT BARNABAS Apostle

Though not one of the Twelve, St. Barnabas is considered an Apostle by the church. He was a Jew of the tribe of Levi, from Cyprus. He came to Jerusalem where he joined the early Christian community. His success in preaching prompted the Apostles to change his name of Joseph to Barnabas, which means "son of encouragement. It was Barnabas who accepted the recently converted and former persecutor of the church, Saul, and set him, on the path to becoming the great Apostle Paul by introducing him to the Apostles. Barnabas was at Paul's side for many years preaching the Faith to Gentiles. Tradition has it that he was stoned to death in his native Cyprus.

God, You commanded that St. Barnabas, who was full of Faith and the Holy Spirit, should be set apart to labor for the conversion of the Gentiles. May Christ's Gospel, which he preached with great ardor, continue to be preached faithfully by word and deed. Amen.

DESCENT OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Everyone seeks to know and remember Christ better. This knowledge was assured to everyone through all ages and times when Christ said to His disciples in bidding them farewell: "If I fail to go, the Paraclete will never come to you, whereas if I go, I will send him to you ." (Jn.16:7) Like the disciples each one of us wished to have Christ remain with us, to enlighten us and strengthen us so that we may arise to live with Him forever.

It is to assure us of His promises that Christ sends us a continuing Gift, the Third Person of the Most Holy Trinity, the Holy Spirit. As the Holy Spirit descended like a flaming gift of light upon the Apostles, so this flame of truth, this most enduring of Gifts, comes to each of us. By this coming of the Holy Spirit to the Apostles, to the Church and to each one of us, Christ, the Son of God, the Second Person of the Most Blessed Trinity, remains with us. Christ with the Holy Spirit remains with us every day of our lives. He seeks us out, even as we seek Him. He is near to us as we call to Him. And He will welcome us into the promised reward of Heaven for our faithful love and service.

Remember, eternity with Christ is everlasting joy, it is our final and best gift, His gift of love.

God our Father, let the Spirit You sent on Your Church to begin the teaching of the gospel continue to work in the world through the hearts of all who believe. Amen.

JUNE: A FEAST OF FEASTS by Pope Benedict XVI

The month of June brings us significant liturgical solemnities. We celebrate the Sacred Heart of Jesus, an event that felicitously unites this popular devotion with theological depth. It was traditional, and some countries, still is, to consecrate families to the Sacred Heart, whose image they would keep in their homes. The devotion is rooted in the mystery of the Incarnation; it is precisely through the Heart of Jesus that the Love of God for humanity is sublimely manifested.

This is why authentic devotion to the Sacred Heart has retained all its effectiveness and especially attracts souls thirsting for God's mercy who find in it the inexhaustible source from which to draw the water of Life that can irrigate the deserts of the soul arid make hope flourish anew. The Solemnity of the Sacred Heart is also the World Day of Prayer for the Sanctification of Priests:

I take the opportunity to invite all of you, dear brothers and sisters to pray for priests always so that they will be effective witnesses of Christ's love.

We also celebrate the Birth of St John the Baptist, the only Saint whose birth is commemorated because it marked the beginning of the fulfillment of the divine promises: John is that 'prophet,' identified with Elijah, who was destined to be the immediate precursor of the Messiah, to prepare the people of Israel for his coming. His feast reminds us that our life is entirely and always 'relative' to Christ and is fulfilled by accepting Him, the Word, the Light and the Bridegroom. "He must increase, but I must decrease" (John 3.30): the Baptist's words are a program for every Christian. Allowing the "I" of Christ to replace our "I" was in an exemplary way the desire of the Apostles Peter and Paul, whom the Church solemnly venerates on June 29. Saint Paul wrote of himself: "It is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me" (Galatians 2.20).

Before them and before any other saint, it was Mary Most Holy who lived this reality and cherished in her heart the words of her Son Jesus. We contemplate her Immaculate Heart, the heart of a mother that continues to watch tenderly over us all. May her intercession enable us to remain ever faithful to our Christian vocation.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Spirit of wisdom and understanding, enlighten our minds to perceive the mysteries of the universe in relation to eternity. Spirit of right judgment and courage, guide us and make us firm in our baptismal decision to follow Jesus' way of love. Spirit of knowledge and reverence, help us to see the lasting value of justice and mercy in our everyday dealings with one another. May we respect life as we work to solve problems of family and nation, economy and ecology. Spirit of God, spark our faith, hope and love into new action each day. Fill our lives with wonder and awe in your presence which penetrates all creation. Amen.

*****

Please pray for all the sick and all those who care for them. Jesus our Lord, we ask You to have mercy on all who are sick. Give them strength and love, and help them to carry this cross with faith. May their suffering overcome the power of evil and lead others to our Father in heaven. Lord Jesus, hear our prayer, for You are Lord for ever and ever. Amen.
