THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The liturgy today is dominated with the assurance of an afterlife. It is a splendid hope. Life is not a journey to nowhere. It is a journey to the promised land of eternal life. This hope rests not on anything human but on the word and power of God.

Our God is a God of the living not of the dead. Have you had an experience of this living God and want to share it with others? You may be called to the priesthood or religious life. If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Fr. Chris Lemieux at 416-968-0997 email vocations@archtoronto.org www.vocationstoronto.ca

WE NEED MORE PRIESTS AND RELIGIOUS.
PLEASE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

November 9th
DEDICATION OF ST. JOHN LATERAN
Chair of the Bishop of Rome (Pope)

The Archcathedral St. John Lateran was originally the palace of Emperor Constantine, adapted to serve as the church of the Pope. The property was owned by the Laterani family. The original church was dedicated under the title "Our Saviour". The present Archbasilica was built later, on the site of the original church and was dedicated to St. John the Baptist but is known as St. John Lateran and ranks first among the four greater patriarchal churches of Rome. The other patriarchal basilicas are St. Peter's, St. Mary Major and St. Paul's.

God our Father, from living stones, Your chosen people, You built an eternal temple to Your glory. Increase the spiritual gifts You have given to Your Church, so that Your faithful people may continue to grow into the new and eternal Jerusalem. Amen.

November 10th

SAINT LEO THE GREAT
Doctor of the Church

St. Leo was born in Tuscany. As deacon he was dispatched by Emperor Valentinian III. as mediator to bring peace to warring Roman factions which were leaving Gaul vulnerable. He is well known for his peacekeeping efforts. 440 he became Pop and reigned as such till his death in 461. He persuaded the Emperor to recognize the primacy of the Bishop of Rome in an edict in 445. Saint Leo is best known for his pastoral sermons on faith and charity. His teachings have had a lasting influence in the Catholic Church. He is the first Pope, whose sermons and letters have been preserved. They are of great historical value. 1754 he was made Doctor of the Church.

God our Father, you will never allow the power of hell to prevail against your Church, founded on the rock of the apostle Peter. Let the prayers of Pope Leo the Great keep us faithful to your truth and secure in your peace. Amen.

November 11th,
ST. MARTIN OF TOURS
Patron of Soldiers

Saint Martin was born in Hungary about 317. The son of pagan parents, early in life he became a catechumen. Like his father he served in the Roman army until, after he had given half his cloak to a beggar at Amiens, a vision of Christ (about 339) impelled him to Baptism and the religious life. He was ordained and had the happiness of converting his mother. He was chosen Bishop of Tours in 371. St. Martin, as well as St. Ambrose, energetically protested against those who would put heretics to death. This great saint converted pagans to the faith. His virtues of were rewarded by an extraordinary gift of miracles. He died peacefully in the year 397.

Father, Your Bishop St. Martin glorified You by both his life and his death. Renew in us Your grace, so that neither death nor life may separate us from Your love. Amen.

Prayer for the Souls in Purgatory

O gentle Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on them. Be not severe in Your judgments, but let some drops of Your Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames. And, Merciful Savior, send Your angels to conduct them to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen.

St. Francis Prayer for Peace

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light; Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek To be consoled as to console; To be understood as to understand; To be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; It is in pardoning that we are pardoned; And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Lord, You reward virtue and forgive the repentant sinner. Grant us Your forgiveness as we come before You confessing our guilt. Amen.

ACT OF CONTRITION (traditional)

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins because of thy just punishments, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, who art all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve with the help of Thy grace to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.
