FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

Last Wednesday the Church invited us to embark on a journey, the journey of Lent, which is the journey towards Easter. We are a baptized people but haven't yet lived fully the life of a Christian. Lent calls us to a change of heart and a fuller living the Gospel. In today's Gospel we see Jesus struggling against temptation. He will help us in our struggles against temptation.

Jesus was led by the Holy Spirit into the desert for forty days of prayer and fasting. Are you open to being led by the Holy Spirit into the life-commitment God has prepared for you? If God is calling you to serve him as a priest, deacon, brother or sister, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy t 416-968-0997 email vocations@archtoronto.org

ST. GABRIEL OF OUR LADY OF SORROWS

Patron of youth, especially young religious.

Born in 1838, St. Gabriel, a Saint of modern times was given the name Francis at Baptism, after the great Saint of his native Assisi.

Attending the Jesuit college of Spoleto, where he was well liked by his fellow students and professors. After being miraculously cured from two bouts of illness he was guided by Our Lady into the Passionist Institute, where he took the name Gabriel and became a true Apostle of our Lady's Sorrows. At the age of twenty four he died of tuberculosis, having already attained a degree of sanctity by a life of self-denial and great devotion to Our Lord's Passion. After his death many miracles occurred at his tomb in Isola di Gran Sasso, Italy. Pope Benedict the XV canonized St. Gabriel in 1920.

*God, You inspired St. Gabriel to strive for perfect charity and so attain Your Kingdom at the end of his pilgrimage on earth.
Strengthen us through his intercession that we may advance rejoicing in the way of love. Amen*

SAINT KATHERINE DREXEL

Katherine was born in 1858 into a devout Catholic family that had moved from being poor Austrian immigrants to wealthy bankers in two generations. Her mother died when she was born.

Katherine, the second of 3 sisters, was raised by a stepmother with her sisters. Her stepmother taught the girls, by example that their social status brought charitable duties with it. Katherine was carefully educated. When her stepmother died in 1883 her father took the 3 girls to Europe for the second time. That trip impressed Katherine more as she learned about her namesake, great Saint Catherine of Siena. On her return she was determined to become a Nun. Fr. James O'Conner, pastor of the local church, whom Katherine admired, for his concern for the American Indians, counseled her to wait. Her father died in 1885 leaving the girls 15 Million dollars. After her sisters' death, Katherine inherited the whole fortune. (Her last sister died in 1945) Katherine was still searching for a vocation; and her concern for the American Indians grew stronger. Katherine went again to Europe, this time to consult Pope Leo XII about what her mission in life should be. He advised her to become a missionary. On her return, with the help of Fr. James O'Conner she entered the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy and took her vows 1895. Katherine eventually formed the Congregation of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament for Indians and African Americans. She gave all her money to charities, helped Universities and foundations. For 75 years Katherine gave all her great energy and income to causes in which she passionately believed in. She slowed after suffering a stroke and died in 1955 with nothing of her wealth to leave. She was canonized October 1st in the year 2000 by Pope John Paul II.

O God, let Saint Katherine never cease commending us to Your kindness. By Imitating her charity and prudence may we succeed in keeping Your teachings and preserving good morals. Amen
