ASCENSION OF THE LORD

The Ascension of Jesus is the climax of His victory over sin and death. It is a day of joy and hope. Jesus wants us to share in his victory. It's important to realize that He hasn't left us, but is still with us, helping us in our struggles.

Jesus said, "Remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." If you are discerning God's call for the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life, contact, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy at, 416-968-0997 email vocations@archtoronto.org www.vocationstoronto.ca

Prayer for Vocations

O God, Who wills not the death of a sinner, but rather that he be converted and live, grant we beseech You, through the intercession of the Blessed Mary ever Virgin, Saint Joseph her spouse, and all the saints, an increase of labourers for Your church, fellow labourers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls, through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

Christ our Lord was put to death for our sins; and rose again to make us worthy of life. Alleluia.

THE ASCENSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

Today's readings describe the Ascension of the Lord Jesus His Heavenly glory after promising to send the Apostles the Holy Spirit as the source of Heavenly power and commanding them to bear witness to Him through their lives and preaching throughout the world. But the ascended Jesus is still with us because of His promise, "I am with you always; yes, to the end of time." He is with us at all times and in all places, releasing a new energy upon the earth, the energy of the Holy Spirit.

OUR LADY, HELP OF CHRISTIANS

When Napoleon, who had conquered Papal States before his exile to Elba, left Elba and returned to Paris to reclaim his power, Murat, French Marchall and King of Naples, prepared to march through the Papal States. Pope Pius VII fled to Savona, where on May 10, 1815 he crowned the image of Our Lady of Mercy. July 7, 1815, after the Congress of Vienna he returned to Rome. In gratitude he instituted the feast of "Our Lady, Help of Christians" to be celebrated in the Papal States. In 1816 the Dioceses of Tuscany adopted the feast and from there it has spread throughout the Latin Church. When St. John Bosco, dedicated the Salesian Congregation in 1868, to Our Lady, Help of Christians, this Feast has attained great fame.

ST. DYMPHNA

Patroness pf those suffering of nervous and mental afflictions

St. Dymphna was born in the 7th Century in Ireland/. Her father Damon, a pagan chieftain of great power and wealth. Her mother a devout Christin died when Dymphna was only 14 years old. Damon was mentally ill brought on by grief. He was looking for a wife of noble birth and resembling Dymphna's mother.

When none was found he was advised by evil advisers to marry his own daughter. St. Dymphna fled with St. Gerebran, her confessor and two trusted servants, and the king's fool. Though it is uncertain what exactly happened next, the best-known version claims the group settled in Geel, where Dymphna built a hospital for the poor and sick, but in using her wealth, her father was able to discover their location.. He ordered the priest's head to be cut off. He tried to persuade his daughter to return to Ireland and marry him. When she refused he drew his sword and cut her head off. She was only 15years old. Dymphna received the crown of martyrdom around the year 620 as she defended of purity,

Hear us, O God, our Savior, as we honor St. Dymphna, patron of those afflicted with mental and emotional illness. Help us to be inspired by her example and comforted by her merciful help. Amen.

ST. PHILIP NERI

Patron of Catholic Missions in Canada.

St. Philip Neri, was born in Florence, Italy in the year 1515. As child he was already known as "Pippo Buono" (good little Philip) At the age of 18 he was sent to a childless, wealthy relative to become the heir. But God had other plans for him. Guided by the Holy Spirit he soon left for Rome without money or specific plans. When in Rome, he lived in a unfurnished room spending long hours in prayer. Soon he started his "street-corner" apostolate. He encouraged passer-bys to "begin to do good" by caring for the sick, aiding the poor and enlightening the uninstructed. Directed by his confessor Philip studied for the priesthood and was ordained May 23, 1551. He laboured unceasingly for the salvation of souls and was so successful, that he was called "Apostle of Rome". St. Philip Neri enjoyed many mystical experiences. God granted him the gifts of prophecy and insight into souls. He celebrated the Holy Eucharist and heard confessions up to the last full day of his life where the people acclaimed him immediately a Saint. He was beatified 6 years after his death and canonized in 1623.
