11th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus had compassion on the people who came to him in their many needs. He has compassion on us, too. Therefore, let us turn to him with confidence now, laying our needs before him.

THE LORD'S PROMISE:

"If you obey me completely and keep my covenant, you will be my treasured possession among all peoples..."

(Ex 19:5)

God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son..." How can you best serve God in a response to that love? If God is calling you to the priesthood, diaconate or consecrated life, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997 or email vocations@archtoronto.org www.vocationstoronto.ca

Prayer for Vocations

O God, Who wills not the death of a sinner, but rather that he be converted and live, grant we beseech You, through the intercession of the Blessed Mary ever Virgin, Saint Joseph her spouse, and all the saints, an increase of labourers for Your church, fellow labourers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls, through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

June 19th

FEAST OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Today, we honour the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, who is love incarnate. We are encouraged to adore the Heart of Jesus as a symbol of His threefold love: His human love for us, His spiritual love for us and His divine love for us. Let the image of the Sacred Heart become a sign that the love of Jesus rules over all of us.

Father, we rejoice in the gifts of love we have received from the Heart of Jesus Your Son. Open our hearts to share His life and continue to bless us with His love. Amen.

June 20th

IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

The devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary is closely linked with that to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Mary's sanctity and her love as the Mother of God are signified by her immaculate heart, burning with love for God and for us.

Father, You prepared the heart of the Virgin Mary to be a fitting home for your Holy Spirit. By Her prayers may we become a more worthy temple of Your glory. Amen.

ST. THOMAS MORE

Thomas More was born in London on February 7, 1478. His father, Sir John More, was a lawyer and judge who rose to prominence during the reign of Edward IV. His connections and wealth would help his son, Thomas, rise in station as a young man. Thomas' mother was Agnes Graunger, the first wife of John More. John would have four wives during his life, but they each died, leaving John as a widower. Thomas had two brothers and three sisters, but three of his siblings died within a year of their birth. Such tragedies were common in England during this time.

It is likely that Thomas was positively influenced from a young age by his mother and siblings. He also attended St. Anthony's School, which was said to be one of the best schools in London at that time. In 1490, he became a household page to John Morton, the Archbishop of Canterbury and Lord Chancellor of England. Archbishop Morton was a Renaissance man and inspired Thomas to pursue his own education.

Thomas More entered Oxford in 1492, where he would learn Latin, Greek and prepare for his future studies. In 1494, he left Oxford to become a lawyer and he trained in London until 1502 when he was finally approved to begin practice.

ST. JOHN FISHER

St. John Fisher was born in Beverly, Yorkshire, in 1459, and educated at Cambridge, from which he received his Master of Arts degree in 1491. He occupied the vicarage of Northallerton, 1491-1494; then he became proctor of Cambridge University. In 1497, he was appointed confessor to Lady Margaret Beaufort, mother of Henry VII, and became closely associated in her endowments to Cambridge; he created scholarships, introduced Greek and Hebrew into the curriculum, and brought in the world-famous Erasmus as professor of Divinity and Greek. In 1504, he became Bishop of Rochester and Chancellor of Cambridge, in which capacity he also tutored Prince Henry who was to become Henry VIII. St. John was dedicated to the welfare of his diocese and his university. From 1527, this humble servant of God actively opposed the King's divorce proceedings against Catherine, his wife in the sight of God, and steadfastly resisted the encroachment of Henry on the Church. Unlike the other Bishops of the realm, St. John refused to take the oath of succession which acknowledged the issue of Henry and Anne as the legitimate heir to the throne, and he was imprisoned in the tower in April 1534. The next year he was made a Cardinal by Paul III and Henry retaliated by having him beheaded within a month. A half hour before his execution, this dedicated scholar and churchman opened his New Testament for the last time and his eyes fell on the following words from St. John's Gospel: "Eternal life is this: to know You, the only true God, and Him Whom You have sent, Jesus Christ. I have given You glory on earth by finishing the work You gave me to do. Do You now, Father, give me glory at Your side". Closing the book, he observed: "There is enough learning in that to last me the rest of my life."
