17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The readings for the 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time focus on the wisdom and purpose of God. They teach us about the value of understanding and following God's commands, and how all things work together for the good of those who love God. In the gospel, Jesus presents parables that illustrate the priceless worth of the Kingdom of Heaven. These passages encourage us to seek God's wisdom, cherish His commands, and prioritize His purpose in our lives.

(www.young-catholics.com)

THE LORD'S PROMISE:

"All things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose." (Rom 8:28)

God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son..." How can you best serve God in a response to that love? If God is calling you to the priesthood, diaconate or consecrated life, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy at 416-968-0997 or email vocations@archtoronto.org www.vocationstoronto.ca

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O Holy Spirit, Spirit of wisdom and divine love, impart Your knowledge, understanding, and counsel to the youth, that they may know the vocation wherein they can best serve God. Give them courage and strength to follow God's holy will. Guide their uncertain steps, strengthen their resolutions, shield their chastity, fashion their minds, conquer their hearts, and lead them to the vineyards where they will labor in God's holy service. Amen.

REFLECTION ON THE
 17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
 TREASURES OF THE KINGDOM
 by Scott Hahn

St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology

What is your new life in Christ worth to you?

Do you love His words more than gold and silver, as we sing in today's Psalm? Would you, like the characters in the Gospel today, sell all that you have in order to possess the kingdom He promises to us? If God were to grant any wish, would you follow Solomon's example in today's First Reading—asking not for a long life or riches, but for wisdom to know God's ways and to desire His will?

The background for today's Gospel, as it has been for the past several weeks, is the rejection of Jesus' preaching by Israel. The kingdom of heaven has come into their midst, yet many cannot see that Jesus is the fulfillment of God's promises, a gift of divine compassion given that they—and we—might live.

We too must ever discover the kingdom anew, to find it as a treasure—a pearl of great price. By comparison with the kingdom, we must count all else as rubbish (see Philippians 3:8). And we must be willing to give up all that we have—all our priorities and plans—in order to gain it.

Jesus' Gospel discloses what Paul, in today's Epistle, calls the purpose of God's plan (see Ephesians 1:4). That purpose is that Jesus would be the firstborn of many brothers.

His words give understanding to the simple, the childlike. As Solomon does today, we must humble ourselves before God, giving ourselves to His service. Let our prayer be for an understanding heart, one that desires only to do His will.

We are called to love God, to delight in His law, and to forsake every false way. And we are to conform ourselves daily ever more closely to the image of His Son.

If we do this, we can approach His altar as a pleasing sacrifice, confident that all things work for the good—that we whom He has justified will also one day be glorified.

SAINT IGNATIUS LOYOLA

Born Inigo Lopez de Loyola in 1491, known as Ignatius of Loyola. Inigo was the youngest of thirteen children.

By the time he was eighteen, he became a soldier. Seeking wider acclaim, he began referring to himself as Ignatius.

In 1521, while defending the town of Pamplona against French attack, Ignatius was struck by a cannonball in the legs. During this time of bodily improvement, Ignatius began to read whatever books he could find. As he lay bedridden, Ignatius developed a desire to become a working servant of Christ. Ignatius discerned God's call, and began a new way of life, following God instead of men.

On March 25, 1522, he entered the Benedictine monastery, Santa Maria de Montserrat.

His time in prayer and contemplation helped him to understand himself better. He also gained a better understanding of God and God's plan for him.

Ignatius began recording his thoughts and experiences in a journal. This journal would be useful later for developing new spiritual exercises for the tens of thousands of people who would follow him. Those exercises remain invaluable today and are still widely practiced by religious and laity alike.

While at school in Paris, Ignatius roomed with Peter Faber and Francis Xavier. Faber was French and Xavier was Basque. The men became friends and Ignatius led them in his spiritual exercises. Other men soon joined their exercises and became followers of Ignatius.

Pope Paul III received the group and approved them as an official religious order in 1540. They called themselves the Society of Jesus. Some people who did not appreciate their efforts dubbed them "Jesuits" in an attempt to disparage them. Ignatius imposed a strict, almost military rule on his order.

The Society of Jesus soon found its niche in education. Before Ignatius died in 1556, his order established 35 schools and boasted 1,000 members. The Society advocated the use of reason to persuade others and combat heresy.

Today, the Society of Jesus is known for its work in educating the youth around the world. Several universities have been founded in the name of Ignatius and in the traditional Jesuit spirit.

Ignatius' passed away on July 31, 1556, at the age of 64. He is the patron saint of the Society of Jesus, soldiers, educators and education.
