PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God, Who wills not the death of a sinner, but rather that he be converted and live, grant we beseech You, through the intercession of the Blessed Mary ever Virgin, Saint Joseph her spouse, Saint Junipero Serra, and all the saints, an increase of labourers for Your church, fellow labourers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls, through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God forever and ever. Amen.

LIFE BY FAITH

Excerpts from the Reflection of Scott Hahn

"Because of his faith, the just man shall live. We hear in today's First Reading the original prophetic line made so central by St. Paul (see Romans 1:17; Galatians 3:11; Hebrews 10:38).

We are to live by faith in Christ who loved us and gave Himself on the Cross for us (see Galatians 2:20).

The world, though, can seem to us as seventh-century Judah seemed to Habakkuk—in the control of God's enemies. The strife and discord we face in our own lives can sometimes cause us to wonder, as the prophet does, why God doesn't seem to hear or intervene when we cry for help.

We can't let our hearts be hardened by the trials we undergo. As today's Psalm reminds us: Israel forgot His mighty works, lost faith in the sound words of His promise. They tested God in the desert, demanding a sign.

But God didn't redeem Israel from Egypt only to let them die in the desert. And He didn't ransom us from futility only to abandon us in our trials. He is our God and we are the people He shepherds always—though at times His mercy and justice seem long delayed.

If we call on the Lord, as the Apostles do in today's Gospel, He will increase our faith, will stir to a flame the Holy Spirit who has dwelt within us since Baptism.

As Paul tells us in today's Epistle, the Lord will always give us the love and self-control we need to bear our share of hardship for the Gospel—with a strength that can come from God alone.

Our task is to continue doing what He has commanded—to love and to build up His kingdom—trusting that His vision still presses on to its fulfillment.

For His vision still has its time. One day, though we are but "unprofitable servants," we will be invited to eat and drink at our Master's table. It is that day we anticipate with each celebration of the Eucharist."

Meet our new Parish Staff

CHRISTINA PERERA

Hello, My name is Christina Perera and I'm so grateful for the opportunity to serve here as your Lay Pastoral Associate. In this role, I'll be working alongside Fr. Ravi to support the spiritual and pastoral life of our parish, helping to coordinate ministries, offering faith formation, and accompanying parishioners in their journey with Christ. I'm truly looking forward to getting to know each of you and walking together as a community of faith.

Please keep me in your prayers as I begin this new journey and I humbly ask for your support along the way. And don't be a stranger – if you see me around the parish, please come say hi!

Hello, I'm Vanessa, the new Youth Minister of our parish. My role is to run programs for the youth called Lifeteen & EDGE.

Lifeteen is for high schoolers and EDGE is for middle schoolers.

These programs are to help the youth foster friendships within the church and to give them a safe space to learn and talk about the Catholic faith.

If you have any inquiries about the ministry, please reach out to me via email.

LIFE CHAIN SUNDAY – A PEACEFUL WITNESS FOR LIFE

October 5, 2025

1:00 pm to 2:00 pm / Creditview & Sandalwood side walk

Come be a voice for life – silently, prayerfully, and powerfully.

Life Chain is a national, prayerful, and peaceful public witness where believers stand together in silent prayer for the sanctity of human life. For one hour, we will line the sidewalks holding signs (provided at the event) that share messages of love, truth, and hope — standing in solidarity for the unborn and for those affected by abortion.

Life chain is not a protest but a prayerful presence. By standing quietly with signs and in prayer, we give public witness to the truth that life is sacred and that we are called to defend the most vulnerable among us.
